

CLINICAL ETHICS CONFERENCE

VULNERABILITY:
A CORNERSTONE
FOR CARE AND COURAGE

Why is the Vulnerable Population at a Higher Risk for Poor Health?

KEYNOTE:

Lisa Schwartz, PhD, Arnold L. Johnson Chair in Health Care Ethics Professor, Department of Health Research Methods & Impact, McMaster University

CONFERENCE GOALS:

- to build capacity to identify and address ethical dilemmas in the clinical setting
- to integrate ethical reflection into professional practice
- to network with colleagues across the region
- to support vulnerable populations in diverse healthcare settings

ACTIVITIES: Case-based scenarios; reflective practices; small and large group discussions; and creative thinking exercises.

April 5, 2019

8:30AM - 4:30PM - St. Peter's Hospital, 88 Maplewood Ave.

Registration: $75.00

BREAKFAST AND LUNCH PROVIDED!

To register online,
click here

