Reconciling Risk Assessments – Yours, Mine, and Ours

Kevin Reel, OT Reg (Ont), MSC (bioethics); Assistant Professor, Department of Occupational Science & Occupational Therapy, University of Toronto

November 18, 2022 | 2:00 - 3:00 pm

We typically see 'assessing risk' as judging whether or not certain decisions or behaviours have the potential to negatively impact the self or others. If we apply reconciliation approach, this becomes something more like 'the action of making one view or belief compatible with another'. This way of assessing risk may offer a more client-centred approach.
